FIRENZE

What makes Florence unique in the world is its artistic and cultural heritage. The University of Florence, illustrious for its origins and history, still keeps this tradition alive today.

Florence boasts an exceptional artistic heritage, a glorious testimony of its centuries-old civilization. Today it is an important international cultural centre, renowned for its academies, art schools and scientific institutes. The city is an active and lively cultural centre with many exhibitions and art festivals taking place every year.

Florence will host the IACE Hall of Fame 2024!
